Subject: The biggest debate action in history

Last night we had our largest mass call ever -- more than 1500 people tuned in to celebrate what our movement has accomplished and hear what's next for the Green New Deal campaign in 2019.

We shared the vision for what we hope to be the largest political debate action ever in US history: 10,000 of us descending on one of the first debates of the 2020 campaign to demand all the candidates back the Green New Deal.

Since we announced it last night, over 950 people have already signed up. We have a goal of getting 2500 pledges by the end of next week to show the candidates and the media that we're serious.

We don't know exactly where or when this will be, but we do know this will be our biggest opportunity to shape the 2020 Presidential Primary, and with it the fate of the Green New Deal.

In 2019, we'll build support for the Green New Deal in every corner of the country. We'll cement the Green New Deal as a litmus test for every politician seeking the Presidency: if you want to lead our nation, you need a climate plan that gives our generation a livable future.

Then, in 2020, we will unite by the thousands to defeat the fascists and the fossil fuel billionaires who aid them, and we'll elect a President and Congress who will make the Green New Deal law in 2021.

But that plan only works if we're able to show up in force and shape the 2020 campaign from the start. That's why we need everyone who can to be there this summer.

Let's do this.
